A PEOPLE TO PEOPLE CONVERSATION WITH THE 2018 DELEGATION TO NICARAGUA

They're back! Please join us for an evening of good food and lively conversation with the members of the January delegation to Nicaragua. Some have been going back year after year. For others, it was their first experience traveling over volcano-lined landscapes to remote villages, tiny farms and rarely explored city spaces. Together, they met with our Nicaraguan partners to renew friendships, see their projects and plan for another year of building peace. Come hear their stories and see what $87,000 in hand-delivered financial support will mean for some of Nicaragua's most marginalized communities.
